St. James's, April 16.

ON Thursday last Mr. William Caſſon was ſworn and admitted into the Place of Letter-Founder in Ordinary to His Maſteſty.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 8th of April, 1785.

The KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act paſſed in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for further continuing, for a limited Time, an Act made in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of His preſent Maſteſty, intituled, An Act for preventing certain Inſtruments from being required from Ships belonging to the United States of America, and to give to His Maſteſty, for a limited Time, certain Powers for the better carrying on Trade and Commerce between the Subjects of His Maſteſty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the ſaid United States," and for continuing, for a limited Time, an Act made in the Twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of His preſent Maſteſty, intituled, "An Act to extend the Powers of an Act, made in the Twenty-third Year of His preſent Maſteſty, for giving His Maſteſty certain Powers for the better carrying on Trade and Commerce between the Subjects of His Maſteſty's Dominions, and the Inhabitants of the United States of America, to the Trade and Commerce of this Kingdom with the British Colonies and Plantations in America, with Reſpect to certain Articles therein mentioned," it is enacted, that the ſaid Acts, and all the Matters and Things therein contained, ſhall continue and be in force until the 5th Day of April, 1786; His Maſteſty doth thereupon, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order and declare, that any unmanufactured Goods and Merchandizes, the Importation of which into this Kingdom is not prohibited by Law, (except Oil) and any Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, Indico, Maſts, Yards and Bowſprits, being the Growth or Production of any of the United States of America, may (until further Order) be imported directly from thence into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, either in British or American Ships, by British Subjects, or by any of the People inhabiting in, and belonging to, the ſaid United States, or any of them, and may be entered and landed in any Port in this Kingdom, upon Payment of the ſame Duties as the like Sort of Goods or Merchandize are or may be ſubject and liable to, if imported by British Subjects; in British Ships, from any British Iſland or Plantation in America, and no other, notwithstanding ſuch Goods or Merchandize, or the Ships in which the ſame may be brought, may not be accompanied with the Certificates or other Documents heretofore required by Law:—

And it is hereby further ordered, that there ſhall be the ſame Drawbacks, Exemptions and Bounties on Merchandizes and Goods exported from Great Britain, into the Territories of the ſaid United States of America, or any of them, as are or may be allowed by Law, upon the Exportation of the like Goods or Merchandize to any of the Iſlands, Plantations, or Colonies, belonging to the Crown of Great Britain in America; and that (until further Order) there ſhall be allowed and paid the ſame Drawbacks on the Exportation of any Sort of Foreign Hemp, or Foreign Iron exported from Great Britain into any British Colony or Plantation in America, or into the Territories of the United States of America, or any of them, as are or may be allowed by Law upon the Exportation of the like Sort of Hemp or Iron, and under the ſame Rules, Regulations, Reſtrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures in all Reſpects, as ſuch Drawbacks are allowed and paid, or are ſubject and liable to by Law, upon the Exportation of ſuch Hemp and Iron into other Foreign Parts.

And His Maſteſty is hereby further pleaſed to order, that any Tobacco, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the ſaid United States of America, may (until further Order) be imported directly from thence, in Manner abovementioned, and may be landed in this Kingdom; and, upon the Importer paying down, in ready Money, the Duty commonly called the Old Subſidy (except as hereinafter excepted) ſuch Tobacco may be warehoused under His Maſteſty's Locks, upon the Importer's own Bond for Payment of all the farther Duties due for ſuch Tobacco, within the Time limited by Law, according to the net Weight and Quantity of ſuch Tobacco, at the Time it ſhall be ſo landed, with the ſame Allowances for the Payment of ſuch farther Duties, and under the like Reſtrictions and Regulations in all other Reſpects, not altered by this Order, as ſuch Tobacco is and may be warehoused by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force: But it is His Maſteſty's Pleaſure nevertheleſs, nevertheless, that upon the Importation of any such Tobacco into the Ports of London, Bristol, Portsmouth, Cowes, Liverpool, Lancaster, Falmouth, Whitehaven, Hull, Greenock, and Port Glasgow, or either of them, in the Manner herein before expressed, the Importer shall be at Liberty, until further Order, to enter into Bond for the Payment, as well of the Duty commonly called the Old Subsidy, as of all the farther Duties due for such Tobacco, but without any Allowance for prompt Payment of the said Duty, commonly called the Old Subsidy, or any other of the Duties which were formerly payable in ready Money; and that if any Tobacco, which has been or shall be so imported, during the Continuance of this Order, from the Territories of the said United States, into the said Ports of London, Bristol, Portsmouth, Cowes, Liverpool, Lancaster, Falmouth, Whitehaven, Hull, Greenock, and Port Glasgow, shall be afterwards taken, within the Time limited, out of the Warehouses wherein the same shall be secured under His Majesty's Locks, in Manner herein before directed, at either of the above-mentioned Ports, to be exported directly from thence, the Bonds which have been or shall be entered into for Payment of the said Duties, shall be discharged in the Manner directed by the several Acts of Parliament now in Force.

And, for the Purpose of regulating the Trade and Commerce between the People and Territories belonging to the Crown of Great Britain in the West Indies, including in that Description the Bahama Islands, and the Bermuda or Somers Islands, and the People and Territories belonging to the said United States of America, His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that no Goods or Commodities whatsoever, except Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, Hemp and Flax, Masts, Yards and Bowsprits, Staves, Heading, Boards, Timber, Shingles, and all other Species of Lumber; Horses, Neat Cattle, Sheep, Hogs, Poultry, and all other Species of Live Stock and Live Provisions; Pease, Beans, Potatoes, Wheat, Flour, Bread, Biscuit, Rice, Oats, Barley, and all other Species of Grain, being the Growth or Production of any of the said United States of America, shall be imported from any of the said United States of America, into any of His Majesty's West India Islands, the Bahama Islands, and the Bermuda or Somers Islands; and that such Goods may, until further Order, be imported by British Subjects only, and in no other than British built Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law; and that Rum, Sugar, Melasses, Coffee, Cocoa-Nuts, Ginger and Pimento, may (until further Order) be exported by British Subjects, in British built Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, from any of the said Islands to any Port or Place within the said United States, upon Payment of the same Duties on Exportation, and subject to the like Rules, Regulations, Securities and Restrictions, as the same Articles by Law are or may be subject and liable to, if exported to any British Colony or Plantation in America; and the Bonds and Securities heretofore required to be taken for such Ships carrying such Goods, shall and may be cancelled and discharged, upon the like Certificates as are required by the said recited Act made in the Twenty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, to discharge any Bonds given in Great Britain for the due Landing any other Goods in the said United States of America.

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that no Goods or Commodities, being the Growth or Manufacture of the said United States, shall be imported into the Provinces of Nova-Scotia, or New Brunswick, and their respective Dependencies, except Horses, Neat Cattle, Sheep, Hogs, Poultry, and all other Species of Live Stock and Live Provisions; Pease, Beans, Potatoes, Wheat, Flour, Bread, Biscuit, Rice, Oats, Barley, and all other Species of Grain; also Lumber of every Sort; and that the above Articles shall be imported by British Subjects only, and in none other than British-built Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, and during such limited Times only as the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said Provinces, and their respective Dependencies, shall with the Advice of their respective Councils, by Proclamation, declare the Importation of any of the said Articles to be necessary for the Supply of the Inhabitants of the said Provinces.

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that no Goods or Commodities of the Growth or Manufacture of the said United States shall be imported into any of the Ports of the Province of Quebec.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

WHEREAS some evil-minded Person or Persons have maliciously and falsely raised a Report, that Mr. Joseph Parloe set Fire to his late Dwelling-House, tending to injure him in his Character and Business: Whoever will give Information of the Person or Persons concerned in raising the said Report, shall, upon Conviction of the Offender or Offenders, receive a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS, by applying to him, at Mr. Burlton's, St. James's-street.

At the same Time he returns his most grateful Thanks to his Friends, his Neighbours and the Public, for their kind Assistance at the dreadful Conflagration, and begs Leave to inform them, that he shall carry on his Business as usual at the adjoining House, where he humbly hopes for their Indulgence and Support.

Royal Patent Forte Piano Guitars.

MESS. Claufs and Co. the original and only Inventors and Patentees of the inimitable and beautiful new-invented Forte Piano Guitar, which, for Richness and Strength of Tone, Facility of Execution, and Delicacy of Expression, may be justly said even to rival the Piano Forte itself, return Thanks to the Nobility, Gentry, and the Public in General, for the generous Patronage they have experienced. The universal Approbation with which this Instrument has been favoured, having induced some Persons to attempt imposing a spurious and wretched Imitation for Sale, with Intent to injure the Patentees, and to defraud the Purchasers, the Public are requested to observe, that the Patent Instrument is distinguished from all others, by being stamped on the Front with His Majesty's Arms, surrounded with the Words Claufs and Co. Inventors, London, Patent Instrument; and also stamped below the Bridge with the Address of the Patentees, No. 7, Gerard-street, Soho, where they are to be had, and where may also be had several Pieces of New Music adapted to this Instrument. They have also some excellent Forte Pianos to dispose of, which they doubt not will be found equal to any that can be purchased in London, and at as reasonable Prices. Orders from the East and West Indies, America, and every Part of Europe, as well as in Great Britain and Ireland, addressed as above, are executed with all possible Punctuality and Dispatch.
